VOL. VI. NO. 113.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CEN TS.

LAKESIDE'S GOOD RACING.

Lakeside's second day showed a decreased attendance and as backers could navigate the ring betting was livelier than when all avenues are crowded. There was no crush at the gate, agents supplying admission tickets to the track while yet the customer was on the train.

The day was lovely, bright sky, clear air and light breezes, being the conditions.

John Condon, the owner of the course, was out enjoying the weather.

The track, drying out fast, will soon be up to record breaking.

In the first race the winner brought back the memory of the day when at Washington Park, his sire, The Hero, won two races in one afternoon. Another Chicago favorite, Bobby Beach, was recalled by his son Henry Batchelor II.

Orlandine, owned by Fredman & Hess, a filly by Wadsworth, was backed down from 30 to 1 to 10 to 1 in the second race.

Sidarth, which horse had been nibbled at, ran away twice and finished the course.

Manilian, in the third race, lost his jockey, Flick, pulled off by the barrier, and ran several miles, not keeping a direct course, but traversing the track in both directions. Finally caught, he joined the field, but did not run the course.

Sam Fullen, the hot favorite of the day, was beaten by Alpaca in the stable of H. Robinson, a turfman who, starting only four horses at the meeting, has bagged three first and one second money.

The colors of Kinzea Stone, well remembered as carried years ago by Kingman, factor in the big suit against Washington Park, were carried by Princess Thyra in the third race.

ST. LOUIS OPENING POSTPONED.

The Inaugural Handicap will not be decided at St. Louis today. The reason is fully set forth in the following from yesterday's St. Louis Republic: "Because of the street car strike, the Executive Board of the St. Louis Fair Association met yesterday and decided to postpone the opening of the race meeting, scheduled for tomorrow, until Thursday, May 17. It was with the utmost reluctance that the officials decided upon this action, but the situation made it imperative. The Inaugural is one of the most popular stakes of the meeting and usually draws an attendance of upwards of 15,000 persons. Ever since the strike began numerous requests have been received by President Aull for a postponement. As fully 90 per cent. of the patrons of the race meeting rely entirely upon the street cars for transportation to and from the grounds, it was deemed only fair to the sport-loving people of St. Louis to postpone the opening."

It is anticipated that the strike will be settled by Thursday, but whether public traffic is re-established on that day or not the meeting will be positively opened, the Inaugural being run on Thursday, the Mound City Stakes Friday, and the Debutante Saturday, as per the original announcement. This part of the adopted program is out of deference to the interests of the horsemen, who are, of course, entitled to a full share of consideration. While the horsemen, as a class, would prefer to see the meeting open on the scheduled date, they appreciate the difficulty of the present situation, and have accepted it gracefully.

"There will be no absentee when the horses line up for the word in Thursday's big event.

"The authority of the board in determining to postpone is fully given in racing rule 190."

SECRETARY HOPPER AT HOME.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Secretary E. C. Hopper, of the Latonia Jockey

Club and American Turf Congress, returned home from San Francisco yesterday morning.

"The popular secretary is looking better than ever, and shows the effects of his long stay in the grand climate of California. Mr. Hopper was associated with Charles F. Price and Joe Murphy in the judges' stand at the Oakland meeting, which closed last Saturday.

Speaking of the racing on the Pacific coast Mr. Hopper yesterday said:

"The last two weeks of the Oakland meeting were the most successful in the history of that track. The crowds were large and the betting brisk. This was unusual, considering the fact that nearly all the good horses and jockeys were at that time on their way east. Sofala was without doubt the best two-year-old filly on the coast. She a medium-sized animal, with lots of speed and endurance. The horsemen out there think her a better filly than Miss Bennett, but this has not yet been proved, as the youngsters have never met in a race. Ed Corrigan's M. F. Tarpey was probably the best of the two-year-old colts.

"Of the young jockeys that showed up well during the past season at the two 'Frisco tracks T. Walsh and Henry were better than the average.

"Regarding the case of Willie Martin, who was ruled off last week at Oakland, Mr. Hopper did not have much to say. He, however, stated that the charges against Martin were fully substantiated by the evidence."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Barney Schreiber arrived from San Francisco Thursday, and after spending a day in renewing acquaintances and in inspecting a half dozen of his horses now at the Lakeside track, left for St. Louis. The major portion of his string is at St. Louis, but he expects to keep a strong division here and will conduct a racing campaign here as well as at St. Louis. After the racing there is over he intends to bring all of his horses to this city and race them here exclusively. He had a profitable and satisfactory season in San Francisco in all respects and speaks in the highest terms of the racing season there, particularly praising the management of the sport at the Oakland track. Necessarily he views the performances of Sofala with profound satisfaction but Barney says he has other good ones yet to be introduced to the public.

A special from Louisville to yesterday's Enquirer says: "Mr. Ed Corrigan, after a flying visit to his farm near Midway, spent yesterday afternoon at the track, and left last night for Chicago. He was very much pleased with the way he found matters at the farm, and especially with the looks of his yearlings. He has nine from which he is confident he will get some good ones. Seven of them are by the Kentucky Derby winner Riley, and the other two are by Likely. All are finely bred on their dams' side. Old Riley, Mr. Corrigan says, has been seen in public for the last time. The old fellow when taken up at Frisco last winter showed all his old-time speed, but he soon bowed a tendon which, of course, made it necessary to again retire him. A person might naturally suppose that a horse which had been in the stud for several years would when taken up and put in training be vicious and fractious, but according to Mr. Corrigan this was not true in the case of Riley. He was as docile as any old horse that had been racing right along, and a sixty-pound boy could handle him. It is easy to see that the 'Master of Hawthorne,' who has not always been actuated by sentiment, has a warm spot in his heart for Riley. Mr. Corrigan in his racing over in England expects to have Tod Sloan do most of his riding. In his foreign venture the big Chicagoan will have the well wishes of western turfmen generally."

Winner—Ch. g, by The Hero—Little Grove Queen. Went to post at 2:15. At post 24 minutes. Start good considering the green lot. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Money Muss got a flying start, showed the most speed and won impressively. He is a good looker and judging from this race, will beat better ones. Battus did his best and under pressure finished stoutly. Boomerack, off poorly and badly interfered with on the first turn, ran a cracking good race. With clear sailing he would have been a keen contender. Possart ran a fair race. Tab him. He has worked fast over the Sheffield track. There was a general mixup on the far turn shortly after the start and all but Money Muss, Battus and Ericsell were interfered with.

Scratched—17593 Give All, 107. Overweights—Money Muss, 2 pounds. Money Muss, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Battus, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Boomerack, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h, by Teuton—Modjeska. Went to post at 2:55. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily at the end after a hard early drive. Dutch Comedian was the best and was also lucky. Caywood kept him on the outside all the way, thereby avoiding all interferences. On the stretch turn the Comedian looked beaten, but he came away finely in the last quarter. Insurrection, on the inside, was bumped and badly interfered with as the field left the post. She weaved her way through the field gamely and ran a fine race. Microscope got away flying, took the shortest route and looked all over a winner at the three furlong post, but when the pinch came in the stretch he tired badly. Louisville made a strong bid in the stretch. So did Fidel Youlin, who finished with a sharp rush. O'Dea was prominent for about half a mile and then tired badly. Sidarth ran away two miles before the start and the field was sent off without him.

Scratched—16403 Queen Safie, 119; 17695 Wedding Guest, 110; (16248) San Mateo, 121. Dutch Comedian, place, 3 to 5. Insurrection, place, 3 to 2; show, 7 to 10. Microscope, show, 4 to 1.

17770 THIRD RACE—3-4 MILE. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds. Allowances.

RACING DATES CHANGED.

A radical change in the racing dates of the clubs composing the Northern Circuit has been made, particulars whereof are set forth in the following special to yesterday's Chronicle: "Instead of seeing the Canadian Derby decided June 30, Buffalo race patrons will journey over to Fort Erie June 12, as on that date the three-year-olds will struggle for the rich purse in a mile and a quarter race. The Turf Congress stakes at a mile and one-sixteenth, originally scheduled to be run in Detroit on the Highland Park track June 14, will not be decided until July 26.

"These changes are the result of the decision reached by the Highland Park club officials at a conference this afternoon, when the entire Canadian circuit dates, barring the independent meetings at Toronto and Hamilton, were given a juggling that will come as a surprise to turfmen who have entries in the various stake events that are part and parcel of the northern meetings. In order to lessen the expenses of shipping from track to track and do away with the bother and expense of bonding horses in and out of Canada more times than is necessary the changes in dates were made and they will doubtless be appreciated by the horse owners and trainers who race through this part of the country.

"The original arrangement was for Detroit to follow Toronto and Hamilton, then Fort Erie, Montreal, Detroit and Fort Erie in the order named. Fort Erie will now follow Hamilton, with Montreal, Detroit and Fort Erie coming in that order, and it is expected Hamilton and Toronto will hold their fall meetings in plenty of time for Detroit to get a second meeting late in September before the pilgrimage to the south commences.

"The dates, as officially announced tonight by Secretary Farmer, are: Fort Erie, June 12 to July 4, with the Canadian Derby to be run on the opening day; Bel Air, Montreal, July 7 to 21; Highland Park, Detroit, July 26 to August 11; Fort Erie, August 15 to September 5."

Winner—B. c. by Hindoo—Brenda.

Went to post at 4:10. Off at the second break to a good start. Won hand ridden; second driving to the limit; third easily. Cariboo was best ridden and was in the best condition to go to the races. He is a good looking colt and Knight took him the shortest route. Hub Prather ran above his mark, and at one time in the stretch looked as though he was going to be troublesome. Both Prestar and Prince Blazes will do better in the mud. Manlius was beaten off all the way. Cariboo, place, 2 to 5. Hub Prather, place, 5 to 1. Prestar, place, 4 to 5. Prince Blazes, place, 4 to 5.

17772 FIFTH RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Winner—Ch. c. by Rowland—Frances Nichols.

Went to post at 4:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving to the limit; second and third driving also. Dandy Jim got a flying start and showed the most speed. In fact he won like a good colt, standing a drive from the head of the stretch home, and at the end was going away. Icon had no excuses and did his best, but hung a trifle in the last twenty yards. Benson Caldwell ran a good race. He had a rough journey, but finished stoutly. Gibson Girl got into a jam at the start and never got untangled. Throw her race out. Light Ball broke from behind running, but whatever chance he had was ruined by the ride he got.

Dandy Jim, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Icon, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Benson Caldwell, show, 3 to 2. Light Ball, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Gibson Girl, place, 3 to 10; show, out.

17773 SIXTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g. by Aintree—Stephanie.

Went to post at 5:05. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily. The next half dozen were doing their best. Astor showed the most speed of the party and was never fully extended. He can beat ordinary horses in an impressive way. Rollins was fortunate in not meeting with interference and ran his best race. Tillie W. is in winning form. She never had a chance to fully extend herself until straightened away for home then she closed a big gap. Papa Harry was well ridden and ran a good race. Obsidian stopped as if short in the run home. It was an unwieldy field and consequently a bad one to abstract accurate form from. The winner was run up $200 over his entered price but was retained.

Scratched—1713 Kirk, 113; 17103 Nailer, 112; 17495 Scottish Grit, 109; 17094 Sister Fox, 107. Overweights—Crossmolina, 2 pounds.

Astor, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Rollins, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Tillie W., show, 2 to 1. Obsidian, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Isabey, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Onondaga—Splendida.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair for all but Cean, who was practically left at the post. Oscar was the quickest to get under way and was never in serious trouble. He won very handily. Ep ran a good race, but could never get up to the leader. The Auditor was closing fast under a drive at the finish. Paquetin, with a better ride up, might have run a better race. Nancy Dobyns showed a lot of early speed, but gave it up badly in the stretch. The others cut no figure.

Oscar, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Ep, place, 2 to 5; show
